

community

Choose 2 of your friends. Write a list to celebrate all the ways in which you are similar and different. Create a friendship note for them and tell them how proud you are of their unique qualities.	Research 10 new facts about the community that you live in or the community that your family's heritage originates from. Choose one fact that you want to share with someone new.	Consider all the people that are helping us in the community at the moment. If you could say anything to them – what would it be? Maybe put the message in your window for others to see.
What does the word 'Community' mean to you? Begin a discussion with your family. Do you agree or disagree with other members? Has your opinion changed?	If you have a garden - ask an adult to help you learn about the plants in your garden. What are they called? Which insects or bugs enjoy living on them?	Rank these in order of most annoying to least annoying. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Someone continually clicking their pen in and out when you are talking.
Discuss the following question with your family. "Can you tell identify what religion somebody is just by looking at them?"	How would you explain what the internet is to an alien or person who had never heard about it before?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Someone talking to you when a teacher is talking and you getting the blame. ○ Someone taking things out of your pencil case and not returning them until you remind them. ○ Someone saying they'll do something and then not doing it. ○ A sibling using a toy of yours and not returning it in the same condition.