A message from Mrs Gum

Feedback from teachers indicates that the Parent Meetings on Tuesday were very productive. I understand that there were technical difficulties for a few parents and these will be followed up by the teachers with a short phone call. Parents will have the opportunity to pop into their child's classroom, to look at their books, after school on Tuesday 15th October. This will give you an opportunity to celebrate with your child their hard work and efforts, and to reinforce what your child needs to do to improve their work. As the weather is changing, I would ask for parents support in ensuring that their child is appropriately dressed for the weather and prepared for the day ahead. Please don't send in unnecessary items. Toys and games from home should not be brought into school. Thank you for your continued support.
